

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, May 25. 1706.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated May 28.

Naples, April 27.

DON Carlos Grillo is arriv'd here from Genoa. 'Tis said he is to have the Command of our Gallies, and that he will put to Sea with them the beginning of next Week. The French Troops that are here, and which consist of 6 Battalions and 8 Troops of Horse, have Orders to hold themselves ready to be embark'd; some say they will be transported to Final. There have been some Earthquakes of late in Calabria, that have done great Damage, particularly to the Town of Aquileia, the Inhabitants of which have quitted their Dwellings and lye in the open Fields.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated May 28.

Rome, May 8. The Pope has contented that the King of France shall nominate what Person he pleases to the Bishoprick of Orange. Cardinal Janfon having had his last Audience of Leave of the Pope, is preparing to set out from hence the 18th or 20th Instant, to return to the Court of France. 'Tis rumour'd his Holiness will make a Promotion of Cardinals the 17th of this Month. The Church dell'Anima belonging to the German Nation has been open'd and visited, and the Pope has taken off the Sequestration of its Revenues: 'Tis expected the Court of Portugal will send Order for the opening of the Church of St. Anthony, that it may be visited likewise. The Grand Prior of France has bought Cardinal Janfon's Coaches, and the Abbot de la Trimouille who is coming to take Care of the Affairs of France at this Court, has bought most of the said Cardinal's Household Furniture. 'Tis talk'd the said Abbot will be consider'd in the new Promotion of Cardinals.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated May 21.

Venice, May 15. On Sunday last the Abbot de Pomponne, Ambassador of France, made his publick Entry into this City with the usual Ceremonies, and the next Day had a publick Audience of the Senate. On Thursday the Doge accompanied by several Senators went according to Custom in the Bucentaur, beyond the Lido, and perform'd the Ceremony of espousing the Sea. Prince Eugene of Savoy has caus'd the Militia of Tirol to be posted to guard the Passages of the Mountains, and the Posts of Torbole, Riva, and others; the regular Troops are march'd towards Sr. Michel in the Veroneze. The Princes of Anhalt, Wirtemberg, and Saxe-Gotha are arriv'd in the Imperial Army. The 2 Armies intrench themselves on each side of the Adige. The French have set men to work to make a Line from Rivoli to Garda, and the Duke of Vendome has caus'd 14 Cannon to be convey'd to Uffolengo, which are to be plac'd on Battery in Order to dislodge the Imperialists from Pescantina.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated May 28.

Mantua, May 12. The Duke of Vendome has augmented the Number of Pioneers that work on the Intrenchment between Guarda and the Adige to 3000 Men; and it will be finish'd this Week. Prince Eugene of Savoy who is now encamp'd near Roveredo, has within a few Days receiv'd a Reinforcement of 3 Regiments and 700 Recruits from Tirol. The Venetians have strengthen'd the Garrison of Verona, keep the Gates of it shut, and suffer no foreign Officer or Soldier to come into it.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated May 28.

Montpellier, May 14. Some Days ago the Duke de Roquelaure order'd Fidel, who was reckon'd one of the most Dangerous Camisars, to be seiz'd, but he defended himself till he was kill'd. A Grenadier, one of his Companions, was taken, and broken alive on the Wheel: And a Person who was accus'd of harbouring them, was hang'd. The 12th Instant in the Morning, the Sky being very clear, we saw the Sun eclips'd; the Eclipse began at half an Hour past 8 a Clock, and about half an Hour past 9 the Sun was wholly darken'd for a quarter of an Hour; so that several Stars were seen, as plain as if it had been Night, and People were forc'd to light Candles in their Houses.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated May 27.

Montpellier, May 14. All the Tartans and other Vessels that were sent with Provisions and Ammunition for the Army before Barcelona, are return'd into the Harbours of Languedoc and Prouence. The Crews of those Vessels report, that at least 20000 Catalonians have joyn'd the regular Troops commanded by the Earl of Peterborough, and that the Count de Toulouse left with the Marshal de Theffe's Army 150 Bombardiers and Fireworkers, and 15 Officers belonging to the Fleet; and that the said Army consists of 37 Battalions of Foot, 27 Squadrons of Horse, and 9 of Dragoons, but all very weak.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated May 29.

Paris, May 24. They pretend at Court to have no News from Catalonia since the Count de Toulouse return'd with the Fleet to Toulon; but the Master of a Ship that is arriv'd at Marseilles, has reported the Siege of Barcelona is rais'd, and is put in Prison for his Pains. We hear 300 small Barks were sent to Catalonia with Provisions; but some of them were taken by the Enemy, and the rest were forc'd to return into our Ports.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated May 18.

Inspruck, May 18. The young Princes of Bavaria are expected here to Night; they are to lodge in a Convent without the Town, and are to proceed to Morrow towards Clagenfurt, where they are to be kept.

Francfort,

Frankfort, May 23. The Troops of Hesse, in Number 3000 Men, march'd from hence the 19th Instant in the Night, and encamp'd at Creutznach; from whence they march'd back on the Road to Mentz, and rear'd to Engweiler, having Intelligence given them that the Enemy were advancing with Design to surround them: They have since posted themselves along the Rhine.
